excited, near the first Governor arrived from the Patriots, for having faithfully served their King: these things must sparkle long in the minds of men, who live the uniform & retired life which such as the inhabitants of Chiloe. —

22nd We were becalmed off Valparaiso; we made ~~but a~~ indifferent passage; we enjoyed however the very unusual ~~pleasure~~ <sup>novelty</sup> to us of seeing several vessels, & speaking two of them; it is always interesting to see ships, like great animals of the sea, come up & reconnoitre each other. —

23rd Late in the night the Beagle & Adventure came to anchor. — When morning came every
